ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Southeast Regional Fruit & Vegetable Conference, held annually, is the premier educational conference and trade show in the southeastern United States that unites growers, vendors and suppliers. We are excited to return to the Savannah Convention Center, in beautiful Savannah, GA, January 6 – 9, 2022.

The Southeast Regional Fruit & Vegetable Conference boasts more than 3,300 attendees and 400 exhibitor booths on the trade show floor.

In addition to the sponsorship opportunities that will continue to be available, we are proud to offer a new sponsorship opportunity with the Silent Auction, as well as new on-site branding opportunities at the Savannah Convention Center. Flip through this prospectus to learn more ways to engage attendees and market your brand in January 2022!

PRIORITY POINTS

The Southeast Regional Conference works on a priority point system. Companies that exhibit will earn 1 priority point and companies that sponsor will earn .5 priority point. Priority points add up over time and allow companies to select booth space (based on availability) when meeting in person or relocating to a different booth on the trade show floor.

Within this prospectus sponsoring companies can review sponsor package features, who should sponsor, and more!

New Sponsorship Opportunity

SILENT AUCTION

The image displays three screenshots illustrating the Expo Auctions platform and its communication with bidders. The first screenshot shows the main landing page of the website, featuring the Expo Auctions logo and a prominent red box for the sponsor's name and logo. The second screenshot shows the mobile app interface, highlighting the sponsor's logo in the top right corner and the name of the auction event. The third screenshot shows a series of text message notifications sent to bidders, providing welcome messages, event details, and instructions for bidding and checkout.

- Logo prominently displayed on the main landing page.
- Logo always present in the top right corner of the auction site.
- Name and website during text message notifications

For the 2022 Southeast Regional Fruit & Vegetable Conference we are excited to partner with Expo Auctions to offer a revamped, streamlined Silent Auction experience. All bidding will take place online through Expo Auction's web-based platform which means no more hassle with bid sheets onsite! Working with a web-based platform also creates a new opportunity for sponsor branding and promotion of your company, products and services. See page 3 for more benefit details, logo placement within the platform, and samples of push notifications to bidders.
